Town council okays budget

Elk Point Town Council brought down their 1986 budget Monday evening after a grueling three hour discussion, setting the non-residential mill rate at 20.502 mills and the residential mill rate at 16.266 mills, a decrease of 1.5 percent and 0.5 percent respectively.

This is the second mill rate decrease in as many years, and was somewhat of a surprise in the face of a $28,000 increase in school requisition this year. "It's very rare to see this happen", Mayor Buck noted, adding that the large increase in assessment is responsible for covering the increased costs of the school requisition, higher debenture debt, and library operating expenses, plus funding new positions on the Town Staff.

Administrator Pat Vincent said that the mill rate bylaw will not be passed until the next regular Council meeting because of some changes in the budget draft.

He noted that in addition to the lower mill rate, residential ratepayers will also get a larger homeowner tax reduction grant this year.

Skies were grey and threatening on Sunday, with scattings of raindrops, but enthusiasm and excitement were undampened, as endless lines of vehicles approached the site of the Official Opening of Elk Point Bridge.

Many of those present carried umbrellas along with their lawn chairs, but all settled back to enjoy the fine entertainment preceding the opening ceremony.

Elk Point School Band opened the afternoon with "O Canada", followed by a number of pleasing selections, conducted by music teacher Don Buryn. Barry and Joseph Hertz of Derwent then took the stage, with the guitar and fiddle tunes by the father-and-son duo setting feet a-tapping in time to the old favorites.

The Clan McNaughton Pipe Band from Edmonton added a note of the Highlands to the occasion with a series of Scottish tunes.

Two groups of the Elk Point and District Ukrainian Dancers drew admiring applause with their lively footsteps and colorful costumes as they performed a variety of routines.

The platform guests then took their places, with Town Administrator Pat Vincent acting as Master of Ceremonies for the occasion.

Pastor John McGregor of Elk Point Baptist Church drew a spiritual parallel between the concrete structure and "God ... the bridge to eternal life." He asked for safety for all those who use the bridge.

Special recognition was made of Mr. Bud Beattie, who was Elk Point Chamber of Commerce President at the time of the 1950 bridge opening and who organized that event. The members of the present Bridge Opening Committee Marie Buck, Sid Holthe, John Yakemchuk, Ruth Vogel, Alvina Schuhmacher and Paul Stepa (who was also a member of the 1950 committee) were praised for their efforts.

Other special guests, Gerry Marusik and Jon Schroeder of Alberta Transportation, Inspector Bill Donaghue of the RCMP and new Vermilion-Viking MLA Steve West, were introduced.

Chamber of Commerce representative Sid Holthe, standing in for President Murray Harper, praised the efforts of the provincial government in constructing an attractive, safe bridge. Holthe also voiced gratitude to the Opening Committee, to Mayor Ed Buck for constructing the oversized ceremonial scissors, to Ralph Kryvenchuk for the artistic rendering of old and new bridges which adorned promotional material and souvenir hats, to official Chamber photographer Ron Barwick and to Alberta Culture and the Elk Point and District Historical Society for help in funding the celebration.

Mayor Buck, who said he was happy to be in attendance at this opening, having missed the last one due to the stubborn behavior of a mule team he was to drive in the parade, noted that "it was 36 years yesterday since the old bridge opened". He honored the community leaders of yesteryear who organized that opening, saying "their work, in part, made ours easier".

Buck said he had been talking with 1950 Chamber of Commerce President Bud Beattie, who had not felt that his efforts at that time were of any special value, but "just part of the job".

Buck's only fear is that "people will whiz right through ... and never see this beautiful valley" due to the new bridge, he concluded.

Reeve Robert Bouchard brought greetings from the County and congratulated the project engineers for a beautiful bridge "which is a credit to their department and to the Province". He thanked MLA John Drobot for his persistence in getting the bridge built and urged him to "forge forward" on getting the rest of Highway 41 widened for the safety of industry, agriculture and motorists.

Henri Hetu of Alberta Transportation commented on the "community enthusiasm" which demonstrates the importance of a safe transportation system. He predicted that the bridge will "serve for many decades to come".

Mary Bennett of the Elk Point Historical Society reminisced about pre-bridge days when the only means of crossing the river was by ferry, rowboats, the "cage", the "jigger" and the infamous ice road. "Whoever would have thought it," she said, motioning toward the multimillion-dollar structure, which "did not come easily, quickly, or cheaply." "This is indeed a historic occasion," she enthusiastically concluded.

MLA John Drobot brought regrets from Transportation Minister "Boomer" Adair and instead introduced Bonnyville MLA Ernie Isley "from the second best constituency in Alberta", who was on hand to "help celebrate another great step in our progress."

Drobot said the Alberta government puts a high priority on roads, because they "affect every Albertan." "Today is the end of a long process, which has resulted in a safer and more efficient highway," the MLA concluded.

Isley regretted that he was "not permitted to make road announcements on Adair's behalf" and quipped that "we (Bonnyville constituency) got part of the old bridge, while John got a $3.8 million bridge! He too, remembered the earlier bridge opening, when his family, living south of Vermilion, had to turn back after car troubles, and I missed the free ice cream."

Isley presented a commemorative plaque to Mayor Buck, signalling the end of the on-stage portion of the event.

Dignitaries then lined up behind the Clan McNaughton pipers, and scarlet coated Elk Point RCMP officers, for the triumphant procession to the south end of the bridge, where the two MLAs wielded the very visible giant scissors to cut the ribbon held by Mayor Buck and Reeve Bouchard, amidst much applause.

Then it was back to the celebration site, where Kehewin hoop dancer Jerome Youngchief entertained with his complicated art as a long line of hungry celebrants lined up to await servings of barbecued buffalo burgers, ice cream, coffee and pop, provided and served by the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce and Elk Point and District Historical Society.

Tourism high on Chamber agenda

With the summer holidays fast approaching, Elk Point Chamber of Commerce made plans to help tourists enjoy the amenities and attractions of the Elk Point area.

The Chamber is planning to produce a four-page, tabloid sized brochure with a map showing the retail businesses in Elk Point and also services and attractions of interest to visitors to the area. The brochures will be distributed at the Tourist Information booths in other towns in the area.

A special Chamber meeting has been scheduled for Tuesday, June 10, to look into the possibilities of moving the booth to a new site, as at least two new locations have been offered. The booth will have to be moved, the Chamber feels, when the highway is widened through Elk Point, although the move may not take place until 1987.

This year's operation of the booth is being organized at the present time, with Niki Riemer in charge of scheduling workers, and new Tourism Committee chairperson Billie Friesen overseeing the operation. Three were chosen from among ten persons applying for the STEP position and will be interviewed this week for the job which will start in late June.

A reply was received from the Town of Elk Point regarding a request by the Chamber to develop an overnight campsite along the CNR property south of Railway Avenue. The Town has offered to do a cost study of the development, although they did not indicate a willingness to proceed with the project.

Chamber also discussed the last minute plans for Sunday's Bridge Opening, with Sid Holthe displaying one of the souvenir hats which will be for sale at $5 each. Holthe commented that "Everything is in place -- we're just waiting for sunshine and 2500 people". He was appointed to represent the Chamber at the ceremonies.

The Chamber will have a float for Canada Day this year. Billie Friesen and Susan Yakemchuk have volunteered to prepare the parade entry, and would no doubt welcome some more helpers, if anyone is interested.

Red Cross winds up season

By Irene Magnusson

In a last burst of activity the Elk Point Red Cross Branch ladies gathered at Violet McFadyen's home to tie quilt number nine, and hold their final meeting of the season. The quilt joins the large stack of other quilts and the afghans, lap robes, and baby sets the group now has on hand, awaiting transportation to Red Cross in Edmonton.

It has been a busy winter for the group, who are getting fewer in number all the time. Eight ladies showed up for this final gathering. Although there are more members, often they find themselves involved with other things and other groups, so cannot always attend. If it weren't for Mrs. McFadyen's unflagging energy, in sewing the blocks together, and setting up frames, and hemming the quilts when tying is finished, there would be far fewer quilts getting made.

However, it is the group's hope that they will be put to good use by someone in need, and they will feel better knowing they have played their part to supply warm bedding when required.

At the formal meeting following the quilting, Secretary Margret Modin read the minutes of the April 7th meeting, a report was given of the Tea and Bazaar, which netted around $370, and remaining yarn on hand was allotted to some members who will be doing handwork in odd moments over the summer.

Chairman McFadyen noted that Red Cross Head Office has sometimes been slow to acknowledge receipt of goods sent, or even money (as from the Tea) and a request may be made for more speedy replies. It is a worry to the group, especially the Chairman, to not have shipments acknowledged within a reasonable length of time.

McFadyen hinted, that if the group does not attract a few more active quilters, and hopefully, younger workers, they may have to stop making quilts. This is a time consuming task, and with so few members - and those getting on in years - it is very hard to keep up. Also Mrs. McFadyen has had the storage of all materials and supplies in her home for these many years, certainly an imposition on her space.

These matters will be considered, when the group reconvenes sometime in September, for the new season.

Bridging the gap

Progress — isn't it wonderful?

Forty years ago, the North Saskatchewan River was crossed in a number of ways — the ferry, the "jigger", the "cage" in summer, the ice road in winter — all of them inconvenient, none of them really safe.

No wonder that the first bridge was hailed with such enthusiasm! Nearly ten thousand people celebrated the opening of this marvelous structure, which provided 24-hour-per-day, 365-day-per-year, instant crossing of the mighty watercourse.

No more waiting when a doctor was needed, or a baby arriving, and the ferry was on the wrong side of the river. No more worrying if a heavy-laden truck would make it across the ice road without mishap. It was a marvel, indeed.

Over the years, however, the once roomy and ultra-modern span seemed to shrink, as the vehicles crossing it became larger and more cumbersome. It became a frightening game of Russian Roulette to cross the bridge at the same time as an oncoming tanker truck, and not everyone ended up a winner.

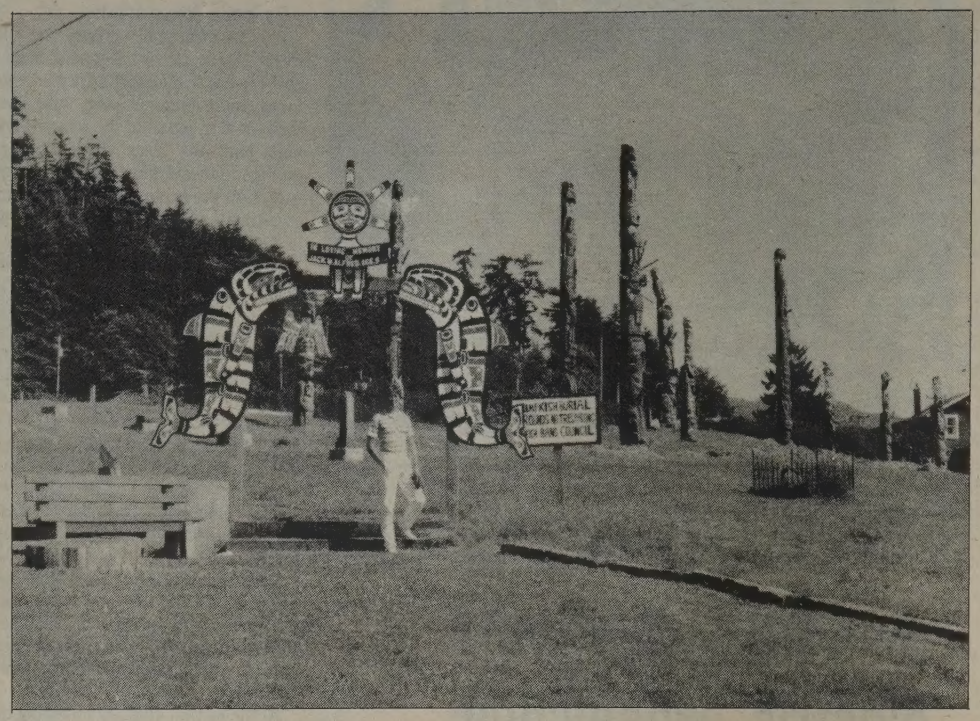
In addition to the bridge itself, there was the hazardous turn at its north approach to negotiate, which not every vehicle could do safely.

Now we have a new wide bridge, with arrow-straight approaches, and no overhead ironwork to snag high or wide vehicles passing over it.

Only a tenth as many people attended its opening, but that does not mean that its functional design is any less appreciated, only that the old bridge was better than the ferry and ice road as an alternative, and that the change is not so major in degree.

A large, no, a HUMONGOUS bouquet is in order, to the Bridge Opening Committee, for their efficiently organized and well-thought-out opening ceremony, which fittingly declared the bridge a part of our community. And an even bigger bouquet to all those whose briefs, presentations and persistence led to its building.

May we all enjoy using it for many years, in safety and convenience.



PERHAPS I WILL VISIT THESE BURIAL GROUNDS — Of the Timkish Indians at Alert Bay, near where my two sisters live. The northern end of Vancouver Island has many fascinating sights, beaches, boats, mountains, forest, waterfalls, great driftwood, wild waves, etc., etc.

Have a happy summer

Since this will be the last issue of the Lakeland Review before I take off for the beautiful B.C. coast, Expo and the thrill of seeing my many family and friends out there, I thought I could sing a minor swan song. I certainly hope everyone of you have a great summer. Looking at it from the vantage point of mid-June, how could it fail to be a great summer!

Right now the crops look very good - see that you keep them that way in my absence. The gardens look even better, lawns and meadows soft and green. Keep cutting. I will not be too surprised to come home to a jungle in my own domain, but then - if I must ramble, I must take the consequences.

I hope to take a lot of pictures. If you're lucky, you'll see some of them. They will not necessarily be only of Expo.

I will be sorry to miss Canada Day events; did that last year, too. So make lots of whoopee for me, too. Please look at every rose you can, extra hard, especially the wild ones. They will be finished when I get home, I'm afraid, and so I will miss them. It is always so hard to leave this lovely land of ours, even for a couple of weeks, we miss some phase of it's beauty, some fleeting change of our brief summer, and I always regret this, thinking - now, I must wait a whole year before I can see this special event again.

Do take care of Alberta for me - I'll be checking when I get home again.

Irene Magnusson

Special people

Two days at the end of this week have been set aside to honor two very special groups of people: fathers and farmers.

Without fathers, none of us would be here, obviously. Without farmers, none of us would eat.

So to all the Dads out there, and all the "dusty old farmers", enjoy your special days. You deserve them!

HEAVY OIL ENGINEERING/RESEARCH CONTINUES

As we have all noticed, oil field activity has dropped considerably as a result of the extreme drop in international and Canadian oil prices. This situation will probably last until oil prices increase. In the meantime, I have heard recently that oil companies are continuing with their engineering and laboratory studies to find new or improved ways to produce and ship heavy oil. No reports are available yet. However, I will keep you informed as information becomes available.

MUNICIPALITY/INDUSTRY INFORMATION EXCHANGE

More than 70 people, representing rural municipalities, industry and governments, attended a day-long information exchange at the Elk's Hall in Elk Point on November 25, 1985. The summary report entitled "Summary Report -- Cold Lake Oil Sands Deposit -- Rural Municipality/Industry Information Exchange" has just been released and is available for viewing at the Energy Information Centre. The seminar, sponsored by the Advisory Committee on Heavy Oil and Oil Sands Development, was held to increase the awareness of municipal officials about the short and long-term implications of oil sands development in the Lindbergh and Cold Lake areas, and to obtain input from municipal officials about the problems they are experiencing and to identify possible solutions to those problems. A secondary objective was to improve communication and understanding between industry, municipalities, and the provincial government.

APPLICATIONS FOR NEW PROJECTS

A public hearing, scheduled for June 3, 1986, before the Energy Resources conservation Board to hear concerns about a PanCanadian application to develop a new commercial oil sands scheme has been postponed until further notice. both PanCanadian and ERCB staff are now working with specific landowners to determine whether their concerns can be resolved. In the event a hearing is still required, notification will be provided to those people who previously expressed concern or interest in the matter.

Amoco Canada Petroleum Ltd. has two applications before the ERCB to expand their existing commercial project located near Elk Point. A notice concerning these applications was recently advertised in the Lakeland Review. The applications are now available for study at the Information Centre.

Seven graduates at Heinsburg

By Shirley Osinchuk

Seven Heinsburg High School students took part in Graduation ceremonies and festivities on Friday, June 6.

The evening began with Miss Carter introducing the special guests. Mr. Hendricks, Master of Ceremonies for the banquet, introduced the graduands and their escorts, who made up the Head Table. Rev. Shoop asked the blessing on a delicious turkey supper prepared and served by the Heinsburg Community Club.

Craig Horness invited the guests to join him in toasting the teachers, Miss Carter replied. Kelly Cardinal presented the Toast to the parents, to which Ken Bettcher replied.

Tracy Bettcher thanked the cooks, servers, ushers, parents, teachers, and all who helped with invitations, decorations or in any other way.

Mr. Hendricks presented a tribute to Miss Carter, with humourous reference to her "consultant", Scruffy, who appears to be a German Shepherd and Poodle cross. Miss Carter has worked hard with the graduating students to prepare for the Graduation.

Principal, Mr. Laverne Wilson was the Master of Ceremonies for the Graduation exercises. The seven graduands, Tracy Bettcher, Kelly Cardinal, Fabian Faithful, Randy Faithful, Craig Horness, Duncan Osinchuk and Marlene Waskahat, entered through the flowered arch.

Miss Marge Carter played for the singing of "Oh Canada".

At the Invocation, Duncan Osinchuk read the poem by Robert Frost, "The Road Not Taken" which ended with the challenging lines, "and I - I took the one less travelled by, And that has made all the difference".

The theme chosen for the evening was "On The Road To Experience", and Lisa Labine, who is a Grade 9 student in Heinsburg, sand the song for everyone's enjoyment.

Mr. Hendricks spoke to the graduands. He spoke of how beautiful Canada is to live in, but how the number of leaders is decreasing. His message to the seven Grade 12 students was that they have it in their hands to do something to improve things, not only for themselves, but also for their families, their friends, and everyone else.

Mrs. Viola Dumont made the Northlands School Division presentation to Kelly Cardinal.

The Valedictorian was the President of the Student's Council, Tracy Bettcher. Tracy spoke about how the graduands have been taught and guided by friends, teachers, and especially parents. They have needed the support, encouragement, love and home security they have given. Teachers have taught them well, and helped them reach for their goals. Teachers and parents can be proud that the students' success is due to the teachers' and parents' success. In closing, Tracy said she was glad to have been in school with Kelly, Marlene, Fabian, Randy, Craig and Duncan, as they all set out on "The Road To Experience".

Mr. Wilson, speaking to the Grade 12 students told them the doors of the school will always be open for them to come to visit.

Alan Abraham, representing the Grade 11 class, received the School Colours from Tracy.

The Superintendent of Schools for the County of St. Paul, Mr. C. Haydn-Jones, spoke of the uniqueness of Heinsburg School and community. He has been impressed with the competent teachers and caring community these students have been privileged to have. Mr. Haydn-Jones presented scrolls to the seven graduands.

Tracy Bettcher and Duncan Osinchuk gave their humourous comments on the school habits and ambitions of their classmates, sincerely wishing success to each.

Mr. Lavern Wilson wished them luck in their future endeavours and success in life.

Guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Adrian Kiss. He said that in one month the students would face a real experience, the real question of "what am I going to do?" The thinking and perhaps worrying about that question could lead to frustration. He encouraged them to challenge that experience with an open mind, and to attack it in a calm, positive, but aggressive manner.

Deep inside themselves, he said, they know right from wrong, so if they stay responsible and honest to themselves, they will stay on a positive pathway. There will be no more teachers hounding, reminding or suggesting, (because they care). It will be up to them.

Mr. Kiss made two main points. First, don't hold prejudices. Meet each individual and experience with honesty and an open mind. Learn from them and respond to their good experiences and share yours. You will help make a good community if you are honest with yourself.

Second, don't let anyone tell you that you are on the wrong road when you know you are right. Start tonight to make the right decisions by having a safe evening.

"God bless. We love you."

Randy Faithful thanked Mr. Kiss, and presented him with a gift.

Mr. Wilson announced that the graduands had pledged their SafeGrad donations to the Red Cross Youth of Alberta. SafeGrad is directed by Constable Doug Huskins of the Elk Point R.C.M.P. detachment.

The band "Wildwood" played for the dance. All the members of the band are graduates or former students of Heinsburg High School, an example of hard work and persistence.

The Exercises closed with the Recessional of the seven graduating students.

After the dancing to the excellent "Wildwood" band, Graduation Day for Heinsburg High School ended with the traditional party that lasted till dawn.

Congratulations on having another SafeGrad.

Out our way

The Range Patrol meeting held on May 30th had the poorest turnout ever, with only seven members present. The President did not put in an appearance, nor anyone from the RCMP. I would gather that all past rustling is now forgotten and people are telling themselves that all is well. I predict that I will soon be listening to tearful stories of how some animal just simply disappeared. In the meantime, range patrol or rural crime watch is shelved until fall, at which time another attempt will be made to revive this organization.

Ferguson Flats way, it's been gloom and doom this past while. A well-known long time resident, Carl Nelson pased away and a large crowd gathered for his funeral last Saturday. Another well-known district farmer, Arnold Ockerman is seriously ill in Edmonton hospital. Lindbergh resident Harry Blacklock is in Edmonton with a spinal injury from a motorcycle accident. His friends and family wish him a speedy recovery.

While visiting Marge Heffernan in Elk Point Hospital, along came Betty Butner and Rodah Lorenson in their hospital gowns. Marge is home and feeling better, and hopefully the other two are doing as well.

The local district ladies are nearly finished with a patchwork quilt they are making. Each community was to do a portion, then a draw was to be made as to which organization will raffle it off.

Last but not least, a Primrose resident, Elsie Tilley, has opened a secondhand store in Elk Point, in the part of the old Zarowny garage that was the showroom. At "Granny's Neat Junk" you will find a large assortment of used furniture, toys, clothes, appliances and possibly even a few antiques. So if your pocketbook cannot stand the new price tags, perhaps you may find it worth your while to go in and have a peek. Someone else's castoffs may become your treasure.

Stoney Lake plans picnic

An old fashioned, community picnic has been planned by the Stoney Lake Community Hall Board for Sunday, June 15, in celebration of Fathers Day and Farmers Day.

There will be fun and games for everyone at the family-style gathering. Ball games, including a unique "Wheelbarrow Ball Game" will get underway at 1 p.m., as well a bring-your-own-horse trail ride of the scenic area.

Races of all kinds for children and adults will start at 3 p.m., with log sawing and nail pounding competitions slated for 4 p.m.

No need to pack a picnic basket, either — supper will be sold at a nominal fee.

Everyone is invited to join the Stoney Lake community for a day of old-fashioned good times and good fellowship. Come one, come all! There is no admission charge.

Elk Point 4-Hers show achievement

Elk Point's 4-H Beef and Multi Clubs showed the results of a year's hard work last Saturday, at their joint Achievement Day, held in the A.G. Ross Arena.

The east end of the arena was ringed with displays of woodwork, photography and self determined projects by the MultiClub members. Eight young woodworkers displayed tables filled with well-done projects ranging from bird feeders and spoon racks to delicate woodcarvings and painted signs. Top honors in the Woodworking Project went to Jeff Orr, who received a $10 gift certificate from Imperial Lumber as a prize.

The Woodworking Project members also had a fine display of woodworking tools, while Jeff Orr displayed a pioneer-style drill a work. Other members of the Woodworking Project are Clayton Orr, Corey Vogel, Sheldon Hawryluk, Mark Lessard, Joseph Gaugler, Michael Yuschyshyn and Paul Ringuette.

The three-member Photography Project displayed pictures of buildings, animals, people and landscapes, as well as photographic stories, and a table full of cameras dating back many, many years. Jodi Vogel was awarded the Photography Project prize of a handsome photo album donated by Millie's Flowers and Crafts. Other members in this project are Elena Drobot and Lisa Lukevich.

Two members of the MultiClub displayed self-determined projects. Mary Gaugler had chosen Foods III for her project, and displayed a tempting array of goodies, plus a well-filled recipe book to take the Self Determined prize. Hope Gaugler's Self Determined project was Creative Writing, but along with her well-written efforts in that category, she displayed a beautful group of sketches and paintings.

As the MultiClub members were busy with their displays, Beef members were bringing in and grooming calves for the evening Beef Show.

Two heifers and eight steers were shown in conformation, showmanship and grooming classes, with Clayton Elliott judging conformation and John Barr judging showmanship and grooming.

The Beef Club members started off their show by judging the conformation of four steers shown by leaders and parents. John Brooker and Darwin Ference were later awarded the trophies donated by Bill and Ivy Ference, and PetroTek Electric in the Senior and Junior Judging categories, respectively. Both were repeat winners in the categories, having taken home trophies from the same donors last year.

The two fine heifers then entered the ring for a brief stint of judging by Elliott and Barr, with Lyle Yuschyshyn showing the Grand Champion for the Elk Point Burger Bar trophy, and Brian Ference showing the Reserve Champion for the Lakeland Review trophy. Yuschyshyn was also a repeat winner of the heifer championship.

Leanne Drobot moved up from Reserve to Grand Championship with this year's steer, winning the Elk Point Co-op trophy, while first-year member Megan McCuaig was presented with the Reserve Champion trophy from Elk Point Meat Processors. Leanne also placed second in Senior Showmanship, for the Work Wearhouse trophy and first in Senior Grooming for the Elk Point Insurance and Realty trophy. Megan tied for second place in Senior Grooming with Dwayne Vogel, for the Elk Point Hotel trophy. First place in Senior Showmanship went to Lyle Yuschyshyn, for the John Wozniak Texaco trophy.

In the Junior categories, Darwin Ference took first place in both Grooming and Showmanship, for the Vogel's UFA and Capital Drugs trophies, while Michelle Theriault took home trophies from G & J Charolais and Stoney Lake Stampede Association for second place in each category.

Beavers end year

The Elk Point Beavers ended their year by holding the 1986 Beaveree at Stoney Lake Hall.

Along with our 7 boys and their families, we had 4 boys and leaders from Two Hills as well as 10 boys and leaders from St. Paul. The day started with the Ceremonial Beaver Opening. The morning was filled with a nature hike and games followed by hamburgers and chips for lunch. The afternoon started out with the boys making a craft followed by a soccer game. Activities ended with the boys throwing water balloons at the leaders. The day ended with a snack and the passing out of Beaveree pins and ribbons as well as Alberta pins donated by John Drobot, MLA, and the usual Beaver Ceremonial Closing.

I would like to thank all the Elk Point Beaver parents for their support during the year and for all their help in arranging and concluding the Beaveree so successfully. I would like to give a special thanks to Barry Dreletski and family for his help. Also thanks to the Stoney Lake Hall Association for donation of hall for the day.

Dewberry News Roundup

By Cliff Cunningham
Dewberry Correspondent

Ron Walker is our new Co-op store manager. Ron and his wife Gail are from Two Hills, Alberta where he managed an I.G.A. store. Ron also was manager of the Co-op store in Mannville in the early 1970's for about four years. We all welcome you to Dewberry, Ron and Gail.

Vermilion and Marwayne senior citizens were invited to Dewberry on May 27th to play shuffleboard. Vermilion seniors were the winners.

An electric storm and tornado hit Dewberry and district on May 27th that did a lot of damage. It uprooted large spruce trees that were from fifty to eighty years of age. Not much hail but there is more water in the fields than I have ever seen in the spring of any year since I have been here.

Dewberry Cemetery clean-up is on June 11th. Lunch will be served.

There will be donuts and coffee served at the post office June 10th, from 2 - 5 p.m, with proceeds going to ball uniforms.

The old McKay building in Dewberry where our Drop-In Centre is located has a new stucco job and looks a lot better.

Marge and I went with Doris Spicer to the horse racing and chuckwagon races in Lloydminster, May 31st.

John Anderson, Frank Bowman and Bobby Braithwaite went fishing at Pierce Lake last week and were able to save a couple of men that had over-turned their canoe.

There was a Violin Concert at the Dewberry school on Sunday, June 1st, with 23 children from 4 to 12 years of age playing violins. Most of these children were from Dewberry and districts with the instructor from St. Paul and others helping out.

Don't forget the barbeque for Neal Jones at the Dewberry Agency, June 17th, from 10:00 to 4:00 p.m. put on by the United Farmers Cooperative Ltd. Neal has been, and is still, their petroleum agent for the last 50 years. Free hamburgers, refreshments and door prizes throughout the day.

We planned to go to the Heinsburg Senior Citizens Supper and Dance but it was just too hot. It is the first time I can remember 90 degrees above F in the shade for three days in a row. Then it cooled off a little on Saturday, May 31st, and back to 90 again on Sunday, June 1st. Today, June 2nd, it is cooler again. I mow the lawn every second or third day and the town is yellow with dandelions.

More Dewberry and district history news - President of Dewberry U.F.A. 1924 John Tough, Vice-President Mrs. Irwin, T. Saville - Secretary. Feb 2nd, 1924 motion made that we ask a policeman to attend our concert on Feb. 8th in Hazeldine School. (Motion lost).(Could be home-brew or moonshine trouble). Concert proceeds $22.95. We notice now since first organized. April 17th, 1909 some names are no longer mentioned. Some joined other political parties. About 30 members still belong with Charlie Maltais still a very active member.

Oct. 4th, 1924 - entertainment to be held Nov. 21st to consist of dialogues, recitations and music. Admission 25 cents. Lunch served cafeteria style. Dance to follow - 50 cents for men only. Local enquiring to carload price of coal at Islay. Gophers still a problem. Money sent to Nova Scotia miners relief fund.

Second Wednesday in June, 1924 date for picnic at Stewarts' lake. July 4th - Resolution re Deer Lake School trouble. Lariat rope replaced at cost of $1.50. Nov. 7th, 1924 - A. Wood and Tom Lee, Islay hospital board members addressed the meeting. Detailed information asked for on the care of local cemetery, who has the responsibility. All members of U.F.A. now seem to be involved in politics provincially. Sent to Nova Scotia mines $26.05. 1925 interest on money in bank - 75 cents.

This has been a resume of events from 1909 to the year 1926 taken from the minute book owned now by Philip Porter as his father was the last secretary up to this time. This book is now in the Dewberry museum. (I wish John Anderson the best of luck for going to all the trouble of copying the minutes, etc. from this book or ledger and handing it in to me for the Dewberry news).

Fair Board reminders

By Irene Magnusson

There are so many things going on at this time of the year, Graduations, Bridge Opening, school closing, job hunting and Canada Day celebrations - to name but a few - that one cannot really be too enthusiastic about the Fall Fair. But in its time, it will come, and the avid exhibitors among us want to be ready.

You will have been busy with the knitting and other crafts, the paintings, photography and writing, and all the children's (Junior Fair) things must be made by now.

So what is left, that we can work on ahead of time? The answer to that has to be - the garden stuff. The vegetables have been planted, and are even now being nursed to perfection. Frost is not now likely, and our main opposition to a great mass of flowers and vegetables is probably the insects. And strokes of fate, such as hail.

But gardeners are made of stern stuff, and will not be detered from trying, and making every effort to produce the very best they can.

In the Elk Point and District Agricultural Fair Flower section are over forty classes. In your new Fair Prize List booklet you will read the rules and regulations as laid down. The judges want to see what you can GROW - not that fancy vase you got for a wedding present. Displays will be in plain jars, except for some special classes, such as a basket of roses and a few other special classes.

In the first classes, the exhibitor will bring her/his very best flowers, trying for size, perfect shape, good color. The following classes have some variety, there can be dried flowers, corsages of real or artificial flowers, and fancy arrangements are a big consideration in some.

Whatever your forte, flower lovers and flower growers, we will be looking forward to seeing your loveliest and most colorful displays come Fair time.

Just to renew your memory, the Fair is slated for August 15th, entering (from 1:00 to 4:30 p.m.) followed by the judging. Viewing will be August 16th (from 2:00 to 8:00 p.m.) with removal of displays to follow.

There are Prize List booklets available at the Lakeland Review office, and from some members of the Fair Board. These are free for the asking, and you must have the entry form on the back page to go with your entries. Entries must all be tagged, and these tags will be available well ahead of Fair time.

Sharil Baumgardner is in charge of the flower section this year, she will be happy to give you any further information required, and may be reached at 724-4117.
